

JOB HIGHLIGHTS:

Internship in Architectural and Construction

We are looking for a young talented intern to be a part of our Construction and Architectural team, who is willing to learn new things related with modelling property project within the hospitality industry.

Qualifications:

- Studying Bachelor's degree in Architecture is required.
- Ability to use either PC, CAD, Sketch up, Photoshop and illustrator.
- Willingness and aptitude to learn about the hospitality industry.
- Good interpersonal skills & Ability to interact with team
- Can use Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, Power Point)
- Proactive, organized approach to multitasking.
- Creative and strong problem-solving skills.
- Good command of English & Thai.

Things to learn:

- Design skills hotel and resort design.
- Learn about estimate cost for construction.
- Learn with the specialist each part operations.
- Construction progress, interior and architecture
- Interior, Architecture and landscape for hotel and resort.

Responsibilities:

Architectural Task

- Develop architectural framing designs.
- Coordination with material suppliers and contractors.
- Coordinate with construction team and related team to develop design solutions.
- Coordinate the graphic design, marketing, together with the other parties involved.
- Develop and implement Kokotel's brand standpoint to match target and site-specific culture and conditions.

Construction Task

- Coordinate with projects, RM team
 - Assist coordinate to supplier/subcontractor requisition need to complete construction project
 - Work with construction team to enhance our visualization and modeling skills across the company's concept.
-